

Kanchi weds Chirath

A totally relaxed chilled out vibe ensured that all the guests invited to Kanchi and Chirath's wedding had a marvellous time. Governed by the rigid rules of the new normal, this wedding was an example of a pandemic wedding. Held in the open, in a beautiful property bordering Bolgoda Lake, the venue was spectacular. Like a mystical figure the bride arrived on a paaruwa and was greeted by her parents who escorted her to the poruwa on the jetty against the sweeping backdrop of the lake. Under the shade of a canopy, guests mingled while supping on an eclectic variety of food. Simplicity was the key to this wedding with both the bride and groom opting for an intimate wedding where everyone had fun.
